LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT NOTIFICATIONS

Simla-4, the 29th June, 1965

No. 2-3/64-LSG.—Whereas the general elections to the Small Town Committee, Paonta, District Sirmur (Himachal Pradesh), were held;

AND whereas the names of the elected members have been notified;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 4 of the Punjab Small Towns Act, 1921 (Punjab Act, II of 1922), as applied to Himachal Pradesh, the Administrator (Lieutenant Governor), Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to appoint the Sub-Divisional Officer, Himachal Pradesh, P.W.D., (B&R), Paonta, as member of the Small Town Committee, Paonta, District Sirmur, Himachal Pradesh.

Simla-4, the 29th June, 1965

No. 1-2/62-LSG(II).—The following bye-laws made by the Municipal Committee, New Bilaspur, Township Bilaspur district, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, as applied to Himachal Pradesh, having been approved by the Administrator (Lieutenant Governor), Himachal Pradesh, as required by sub-section (2) of the said section, are hereby published for general information. These bye-laws shall come into force within the limits of Municipal Committee, New Bilaspur Township, Bilaspur district from the 1st of July, 1965.

BYE-LAWS UNDER SECTION 31 OF THE PUNJAB MUNICIPAL ACT, 1911 AS EXTENDED TO HIMACHAL PRADESH

1. Business bye-laws under section 31.—Every general meeting of the Municipal Committee, whether ordinary or special, shall be held at a place, date and hour to be fixed by the President or in his absence or when he is unable to discharge his duties, by the Vice-President, or when the Committee has no President or Vice-President or has not yet elected a President or a Vice-President or when both the President and the Vice-President are absent or unable to discharge their duties, by the Secretary for sufficient reasons to be recorded by him in the notice; provided that the ordinary meetings of the general committee shall be held fortnightly; and as far as possible on any day during the second and fourth week of each month; provided further that the President or in his absence the Vice-President or when there is neither a President or a Vice-President in existence, the Secretary may convene a meeting at any time or place for the election of the President but not for the transaction of any other business.

2. (a) The notice of every meeting under bye-law I shall state the place, date and hour fixed for it and shall be signed by the President or Vice-President or Secretary of the Committee.

(b) The notice shall be accompanied by a list of the business duly attested by the Secretary to be transacted at the meeting as ordered by the President or in his absence by the Vice-President or in the absence of both the Secretary hereinafter called the "Agenda".

(c) The agenda shall include every matter that any member may desire to put before the meeting provided that a copy of the motion therein signed by such member and by another member as a seconder is delivered to the Secretary at the municipal office at least seven clear days before that date of the meeting.

(d) The notice and agenda shall be in English or in Hindi and shall be despatched to each member so that at least one clear day for a meeting that is deemed to be urgent and three clear days for another meeting shall intervene between the date of despatch and the date of the meeting.

(e) A notice of not less than 48 hours shall be given for the purposes of electing office bearers and the election of office bearers shall not even with the consent of all members, be held without such notice having been given.

3. Notice of an adjourned meeting, which includes meetings adjourned for want of quorum or on other grounds, shall be given by the Chairman on the spot and the information thereof shall, as soon thereafter as possible, be sent to all members of the Committee who are absent, provided that it shall be lawful for the President or in the absence or when he is unable to discharge his duties the Vice-President to alter, with due notice to all the members, on an emergency (for reasons to be recorded in the notice) the place, date or hour of such an adjourned meeting.

4. All cases on the agenda, of a meeting shall be made available in the Secretary's office for inspection by members immediately after the despatch of the agenda.

5. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at an ordinary meeting of the Committee shall be one third or 3 whichever is greater of the total number of members actually serving at the time.

6. In the absence of a quorum, the Chairman shall forthwith suspend the proceedings and adjourn the meeting.

7. Every meeting shall commence with a motion by the Chairman that the minutes of the previous meeting be confirmed. Such minutes shall ordinarily be taken as read but if for any reason they have not been previously circulated to the members they shall be read before they are taken into consideration. Any member who was present at the previous meeting may object to the confirmation of the minutes by moving an amendment on the ground that any matter is not correctly recorded or expressed. Any correction that the majority of the members present at the time when the matter in question was before the house consider necessary shall then be made in the minutes and thereafter the minutes shall be confirmed.

8. The Chairman shall decide all points of order or procedure and his decision shall be final. The Chairman shall order his rulings to be recorded in a separate register when so desired by himself or requested by any member. Whenever he rises, any member speaking shall resume his seat.

9. The items on the agenda shall be dealt within their order provided that the Chairman may with the consent of the majority of the members present vary such order or bring before the meeting any urgent matter not included in the agenda.

10. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the Chairman shall name the member who is to speak.

11. Members when speaking shall stand and address the Chairman, and except on a point of order or personal explanation, the member speaking shall not be interrupted by any member other than the Chairman.

12. The proceedings of the meeting shall be conducted in Hindi and shall be recorded in a register to be called the minute book.

13. No written speeches shall be delivered.

14. So far as is possible and consistent with the matter under discussion, no member shall direct personal or objectionable remarks about or against any other member. For the purpose of this bye-law the ruling of the Chairman shall be final.

15. A member desiring to raise a point of order or give personal explanation, shall rise and address the Chairman. The member speaking shall then give way and resume his seat until the Chairman has decided the point raised, provided that the Chairman may permit any other member including the member called to order to speak on the said point.

16. If the meeting or any member refuses to obey the ruling of the Chairman on any matter he may adjourn it at once, and once he declares the meeting adjourned on this or any other ground, the subsequent proceeding of the meeting or any residue thereof shall be void and shall not appear in the minute.

17. The Chairman may after calling the attention of the meeting to the conduct of a member who persists in irrelevance or in tedious repetition of his own arguments or of the arguments used by other members, direct him to discontinue his speech.

18. The Chairman may name unruly member for report to Government for consideration under section 16(1)(e) of the Municipal Act.

19. The Chairman may direct any member whose conduct is in his opinion grossly disorderly to withdraw immediately from the meeting and any member so ordered to withdraw shall do so forthwith and shall unless recalled by the Chairman absent himself during the remainder of the meeting. The Chairman may cause to be summarily removed any member who disobeys an order to withdraw under this bye-law.

20. Every motion or resolution shall be read, and, if necessary explained to the members and, if seconded shall be deemed to have been placed before the meeting for discussion. The mover shall speak first in support of his motion, then the seconder may speak or if he so desires he may reserve his speech to a later period of the debate.

21. A member may speak only once to each motion, but the mover or a seconder of substantive motion or resolution may reply at the conclusion of the debate thereon; provided that the Chairman at his discretion may at any time allow a member who has already spoken to give a brief explanation.

22. After motion has been proposed and seconded, any member may propose an amendment thereto, and such amendment if seconded shall be put before the meeting for discussion. An amendment that is not seconded will fall through.

23. Any number of amendments to a motion may be put before the meeting for discussion at the same time but they shall be put to the vote in the reverse order to that in which they were moved. After all the amendments have been proposed, the substantive motion or resolution shall be put to the vote.

24. A member who has already spoken on a substantive motion before the meeting, is not thereby debarred from speaking on an amendment to the motion; provided that in so doing he confines himself strictly to the fresh matter introduced by the amendment.

25. No motion or amendment shall be withdrawn except with the consent of the meeting.

26. Every motion, resolution or amendment voted on, shall be put to the meeting both for and against. Proviso:—Nothing in this and the following bye-laws shall effect the provisions of the rules for the election of the President and Vice-President as are in force or may be brought in force by the Himachal Pradesh Government.

27. Unless a poll is demanded by any member present at the meeting, a declaration made at the meeting by the Chairman that a motion, or amendment has been carried or lost shall be sufficient warrant for making an entry to that effect in minutes. If a poll is demanded by any member present, it shall be taken by show of hands and the result of such polls as declared by the Chairman shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Committee. The dissent of any member or the fact of his not voting shall be recorded by the Chairman if so requested by the dissenting or non-voting member.

28. No decision of a Committee shall be re-opened before the lapse of six months after it has been recorded, except (a) in compliance with an express order of the local government or of the commissioner; or (b) with the permission in writing of the President; or (c) on the written request signed by at least one half of the total number of the members actually serving at the time; and in all cases the matter shall be duly entered and circulated in agenda as required under bye-law 2.

29. Any officer of Government or other person not being a member of the Committee may with the consent of the Chairman and majority of the members then present address the meeting.

30. All meetings of the Committee shall be open to the reporters of the press and at the discretion of the Chairman to the public; provided that the reporters of the public or both shall withdraw from the meeting if at any time so required by the Chairman.

31. Except as provided by bye-law 29, no expression of approval or disapproval on the part of the public or reporters present shall be permitted in the meeting.

32. The Chairman may cause to be summarily removed from the building in which a meeting is being held any person other than a member of the committee, who interrupts the business of the meeting or make any noise or any expression of approval or disapproval or conducts himself in an unseemly manner.

33. No member shall inspect the papers relating to a matter in which he or either of his parents or any other descendant of either of his parents or the husband or wife as may be of any such descendant has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest subject to the following exceptions:—

- (a) members of sub-committees and members charged with the performance of any special duty may inspect the papers, documents, registers and records connected with their duties at the Secretary's office during office hours; and (b) any other member may inspect papers documents, registers and records of the committee, including the record of any matter pending before a sub-committee at the Secretary's office during office hours.

Proviso:—Nothing in this bye-law shall be deemed to deprive any person of a right to inspect a municipal record, register, or document under any law other than the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, as applied to Himachal Pradesh.

34. Any person other than a member, can inspect a municipal record with the permission in writing of the President, Vice-President or Secretary and on payment of inspection fees as prescribed by the Government for the inspection of Judicial records; provided that the proceedings of the sub-committee and other specific reports pending before a sub-committee or committee shall not be open to public inspection.

35. The Secretary shall keep a register in his office, in which shall be entered the number and other particulars of any file or record or register, which has been sent for from his office by any court, President, Vice-President, members, or other officers of the committee, and shall also enter in the register the date of its return.

36. The Secretary or other Municipal Officer or servant under the orders of the Secretary shall if so desired give on demand a receipt of acknowledgment for any article, documents, letter or any other writing presented to him.

37. A full report of the action taken under their special powers by the Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner, the sub-committee, the President or Vice-President shall be submitted by the Secretary for the information of members immediately after the action is taken at the next following meeting of the committee.

38. Any action taken by the President or any other municipal officer on the report of a member shall be immediately communicated by the Secretary to the reporting member, and if the reporting member alleges that he is not satisfied with the action taken and if he so desires the Secretary shall lay the papers before the sub-committee concerned.

39. The Secretary or in his absence any person duly authorised by Chairman shall record in Hindi the proceedings of the general meetings in the register of proceedings under the direction of the Chairman and shall be responsible for the correct recording.

40. At every general meeting of the committee, the Secretary shall lay on the table a list of the resolutions passed by the committee a month previously and which have not been carried out by the officers or servants of the committee.

41. The common seal of the committee shall be affixed to:—

- (a) all deeds of sale, whether relating to sale of movable or immovable property executed by or on behalf of the committee;
- (b) all written contracts and deeds executed and leases given by the committee;
- (c) all cheques;
- (d) all bills for the recovery of taxes, rents and other dues;
- (e) all notices, orders, sanctions and permits issued under the Municipal Act and rules thereunder;
- (f) all copies of Municipal records and maps supplied to applicants;
- (g) any other document or class of documents on which the committee or the President may direct that the common seal of the committee shall be affixed.

42. The Committee shall establish the following sub-committees to assist in its administration;

- (a) the finance, octroi and taxation sub-committee;
- (b) the works and buildings sub-committee;
- (c) the medical and public health sub-committee;
- (d) the education sub-committee.

43. The finance, octroi and taxation sub-committee shall consist of the President of the Committee who shall be ex-officio Chairman of the sub-committee and two members elected by the committee and the Secretary of the committee shall be ex-officio Secretary of the sub-committee.

44. The works and buildings sub-committee shall consist of three members elected by the committee and the Municipal Engineer or overseer as the case may be shall be ex-officio Secretary of this sub-committee.

45. The Medical and Public Health sub-committee shall consist of the Civil Surgeon who shall be ex-officio Chairman of the sub-committee and two members elected by the Committee and the Medical Officer of Health or sanitary inspector as the case may be, shall be ex-officio Secretary of this sub-committee.

46. The education sub-committee shall consist of three members elected by the committee and the Head Clerk or the clerk of the office of the committee as the case may be shall be ex-officio Secretary of this sub-committee.

47. Members the sub-committee shall be elected at a general meeting of the committee, as soon as, may be after a new committee has been constituted, and shall hold office for one year from the date of their election and in the case of casual vacancy the member elected to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the un-expired period of the elected member in whose place he becomes a member of the sub-committee. In the second and third years of the committee's existence, the election of the members of the sub-committee shall be held at such a date as to allow the new members to take their seats as members of the sub-committees as soon as the term of office of their predecessors has expired. A member may be elected to two or more sub-committees and an out-going member of a sub-committee shall be eligible for re-election.

48. A member of a sub-committee shall be removed from the sub-committee if he has absented himself for more than two consecutive months from the meeting of the sub-committee. A member may also be removed from a sub-committee by a resolution of the committee.

49. Subject to the provision of bye-laws 43 and 45 the members of the sub-committee shall elect one of themselves to be Chairman of the sub-committee; and the Chairman so elected shall preside all meetings of the sub-committee; provided that if he is unable to be present at a meeting, the members present shall elect one of themselves to preside at that meeting.

50. Each sub-committee shall meet once a week or at such other periods as the committee or such sub-committee may prescribe; and the notice of every meeting with a brief note of the agenda shall be sent to the members of the sub-committee by its Secretary under the orders of the Chairman who shall fix the place, date and time of the meeting. Each sub-committee may in its meeting fix the place, date and time of an adjourned meeting and notice thereof shall be sent by the Secretary of the sub-committee to all the absent members of the sub-committee.

51. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of a sub-committee unless at least two third of the members of the sub-committee are present, but adjourned meeting may be held without a quorum.

52. An emergent meeting of the sub-committee shall be conducted by its Secretary on a written requisition from the President of the committee or of at least two members of the sub-committee at a time not less than 24 hours after the time when such requisition is delivered to its Secretary. Immediately on receipt of such requisition the Secretary of the sub-committee shall despatch to all the members of the sub-committee a notice of the meeting, together with a notice stating the business to be transacted.

53. The procedure of every sub-committee including a special sub-committee, shall so far as may be, be conducted in accordance with the bye-laws regulating the procedure of the committee provided that if on any matter a sub-committee equally divided, the matter shall be referred to the committee for order or decision.

54. Every sub-committee shall maintain minutes of its proceedings in a separate book set apart for this purpose and its Chairman shall sign the minutes. The minutes shall be recorded by its Secretary in Hindi or in his absence by any of the member of the sub-committee present.

55. The Secretary of the sub-committee shall as soon as possible after each meeting forward to the President a copy of the minutes of its proceedings and sub-committee shall defer action upon any resolution passed by it if required by the President to consider it or to defer action pending the consideration of the matter by the committee.

56. A sub-committee may appoint one or more of its members to investigate and report on any matter.

57. The committee or President may appoint a special sub-committee of not less than three members of the committee to investigate and report on any matter not falling within the scope of the standing sub-committee or for any special purpose or if so desired by the President to advance or aid him in the discharge of any portion of his duties, and such special sub-committee shall cease to exist as soon as that matter has been disposed of by the committee or the President.

58. Nothing in these bye-laws shall be deemed to authorise any sub-committee to exercise any power or perform any function the exercise or performance of which has been delegated by the committee to any officer or has been vested in any officer by any rule made under the Act as to require that any matter in respect of which any such power or function has been so delegated shall be submitted to a sub-committee.

59. Subject to the provisions of bye-law 58 the finance sub-committee shall be responsible for the preparation of annual budget of the committee and to it shall be submitted all matters relating to imposition, assessment and collection of taxes, the sale or lease of Municipal immovable property, or immovable property of Government managed by the committee, the raising of loans, municipal establishment, other than the establishment of the education, public health water works, and building department, and accounts other than special departmental accounts and all other matters relating to finance. It shall also inspect once a month with or without a detailed audit or examination, the accounts maintained in the municipal office and report its results of inspection to the committee. To this sub-committee shall also be submitted all matters relating to the licensing or taxation of vehicles or animals and their drivers including the fixing of rates of vehicles and all other matters relating to the control of vehicles establishment and all other matters relating to vehicles.

60. To the municipal work buildings sub-committee shall be submitted all matters relating to municipal works and services under the charge of the municipal overseer and the establishment of the municipal works department and establishment entertained in connection with other services under the charge of the municipal overseer. It shall also cause to be prepared or check estimates for works or repairs and shall advise the committee whether any work to be done by the committee should be entrusted to a contractor or carried out by the committee by its own agency and shall invite tenders and recommend a contractor for work to be entrusted and shall arrange for execution and supervision of work to be done by the committee's own agency. It shall also supervise all public works connected with buildings, road and drains and shall report to the committee regarding the completion of all works. To it shall also be submitted all applications for permission to erect or re-erect buildings, all cases of erection or re-erection of buildings without sanction or in contravention of sanction, all applications for permission to lay out or make streets, all cases of laying out or making of streets without sanction or in contravention of sanction and all cases connected with encroachment on or over streets, sewers, drains or water courses.

61. To the Medical and Public Health Sub-Committee all matters relating to hospitals, dispensaries, vaccination, registration of vital statistics, epidemic diseases, the cleanliness, safety, watering and lighting of streets and roads, drains and water courses, the sanitation of private property, the disposal of night soil and sweeping and other matters connected with conservancy, the control of food supplies, markets, slaughter houses, loading houses, cow houses, stables, burial and burning grounds and maintenance of public garden and holding of fairs and generally medical and all other matters relating to public health and services under the charge of the municipal medical officer of health and establishment entertained in connection with such matters, and all matters relating to municipal water works and water supply and services under the charge of superintendent of water works and establishment and all other matters relating to water works.

62. To the Education Sub-Committee shall be submitted all matters relating to school, reading rooms, libraries and the establishment connected therewith and all other matters relating to or connected with education.

63. Each sub-committee, subject, to any special or general orders of the committee, exercise a general supervision, in respect of the subjects allotted to it. All communication or orders received by the committee from the Government or other officer of the Government on these subjects shall be held before the sub-committee concerned, except in connection with the routine matters dealt with by the Secretary of the committee.

64. Each sub-committee shall pass its own budget estimate in December, of each year and submit the same to the finance sub-committee.

65. A sub-committee shall either on its motion or on a reference made to it by the committee or the President report to the committee on matters relating to its subjects.

66. A sub-committee may sanction the exercise of any work in connection with the subject allotted to it and order payment thereof, provided that the total cost does not exceed Rs. 100 and that provision has been made for it in the sanctioned budget.

67. No matters within the cognizance of a sub-committee shall be put before the committee for consideration unless it has been dealt with by sub-committee concerned, but urgent matters may be disposed of by the president without any reference to the sub-committee concerned which shall be laid before the committee for information. If any matter is submitted to a sub-committee in respect of which the committee has delegated its powers to the sub-committee under section 33 of the Municipal Act, the sub-committee shall pass orders in respect of such matter and its orders shall not be subject to revision by the committee; in all other cases in which the orders of the committee are required the sub-committee shall make a recommendation to the committee.

68. (1) Subject to bye-law 55 a copy of the proceedings of every meeting of a sub-committee shall be forwarded by the Secretary of the sub-committee to the Secretary of the committee for inclusion in the agenda of the next meeting to the committee.

(2) When the proceedings of the sub-committee are being considered by the committee, no discussion shall be permitted of any item in respect of which the sub-committee has passed orders in exercise of a power delegated to it by the committee or of any item in respect of which the sub-committee has called for a further report or otherwise postponed passing an order or making the recommendation, and any such item shall be recorded merely as "Read" provided that any member may call in question any order of sub-committee, on the ground that it was ultra-vires of the sub-committee and if the committee consider that such orders were ultra-vires, it may confirm, modify, or cancel such orders. Provided further that if any member considers that the sub-committee is unduly delaying the decision of any matter in respect of which it has passed no order or made no recommendation, he may move a motion requiring the sub-committee to pass orders or submit its recommendation within a special period and if such a motion is carried and the sub-committee fails to pass an order or make a recommendation within the period fixed, the committee may itself proceed to pass orders in respect of such matter.

69. Notwithstanding anything in these bye-laws in cases of emergency, the President may direct that any matter may be submitted direct to the committee if there is no time for it to be submitted first to the sub-committee to which it ought ordinarily to be submitted under the provision of these bye-laws.

70. The President shall be the Chief Executive Authority of the committee and shall be responsible for the administration of the Municipality in all its departments. He shall have the power to sanction the auction sale of cattle impounded under Cattle Press-Pass Act, 1871, and also the sale of unserviceable articles and other imported articles, liable to destruction or deterioration kept in custody on account of non-payment of octroi duty or other charges.

71. Under the control of the President, or in any case of emergency or when the President is absent from the Municipality or is unable to discharge his duties, the Vice-President may exercise his powers.

72. The Committee shall from time to time nominate a member or members to undertake special inspection of the working of its various departments or to perform any special duty. Every such member shall report to each meeting of the Committee what he has done in the execution of the duty entrusted to him.

73. A Sub-committee can appoint one of its members to supervise the administration of subjects allotted to it and hold him responsible for it.

74. Additional words upto every hundred or less ..	Re. 0.37	Re. 0.19

(b) Fees for maps and plans.—For each square foot of tracing paper used or portion thereof Rs. 3 if, however, the Secretary considers that in view of laboriousness of the work a special fee will be charged, he shall fix a special rate not exceeding for each square foot Rs. 5.

(c) Urgent fees.—Which shall entitle the applicant to precedence over all other copying works Re. 1.

(d) Search fees.—For any record concerning which sufficient information has not been supplied to enable the record to be traced out easily 50 paise per year for each year's record searched.

(e) Other fees.—For postal and other expenses actually incurred, the amount actually spent on behalf of the applicant.

6. Of these fees in case (a), (b) and (c) 4/10th shall be paid to the person deputed by the Secretary or the President as the case may be, to make copies 5/10th shall be credited to the municipal fund as record fee and fee for the papers, etc., used (for which no other charge shall be made) and 1/10th shall be paid to the person certifying the copy to be a true one under bye-law 96(4). In case (d) and (e) the whole of the fee shall be credited to the municipal fund.

97. The President or in his absence the Vice-President or the Secretary, as the case may be, shall decide if any person is entitled to receive any copy under these bye-laws and may, by special order, direct that copies of documents other than those specified above may be granted to applicant for reasons to be recorded in writing.

98. Every member of the Committee shall have a right of interpolation, which may be exercised subject to the following conditions:—

1. Every member who desires to put any question concerning the affairs of the municipality shall send his question or questions in writing to the Secretary of the Committee at least two weeks before the next ordinary meeting of the general meeting.
2. The questions received shall be numbered serially by the Secretary in the order of the receipt and shall be inserted in the agenda of the general Committee in the order of their serial number.
3. On receipt of the questions, the Secretary shall place them before the President, who may direct any officer of the Committee or the Chairman of the sub-committee concerned to prepare answers to the questions.
4. Questions must not be argumentative or hypothetical or defamatory of any person or section of the community.
5. The President may disallow any question which does not concern to condition 4 above or which would in his opinion involve more labour than the question is worth.
6. If the President disallows any question, the decision will be communicated to the members concerned and the decision of the President shall be final.
7. At the next meeting of the Committee the Chairman of the meeting or with his permission the Secretary or any other officer of the Committee shall read the answers to the questions on the agenda.
8. The questions and answers thereto shall form part of the proceedings of the Committee unless the Committee otherwise directs in any particular case.

9. The member putting the question may withdraw it at any time before the answer is read at the meeting but in such case the question shall be expunged from the proceedings.
10. If the member who has been given due notice of question has not withdrawn it but is not present at the meeting, the Chairman may allow the question to be put by any other member present and the answer to be read.
11. Every member present in the meeting when an answer to a question is read shall have a right to put a supplementary question.
12. The chairman may disallow any supplementary question for want of relevancy on the reasonable cause; and his decision shall be final.

99. No stores or articles be supplied or work done for any private person by any department or servant of the Committee without the express sanction in writing of the President.

100. No movable or immovable municipal property shall be sold without the previous sanction of the Committee. If, however, the property is of such nature that its value is likely to depreciate before such sanction can be obtained, the Secretary with the approval in writing of the President order it to be sold and in that case afterwards, place the matter before the general meeting of the Committee for information.

101. The municipal office shall remain closed on the days the Deputy Commissioner's office is closed. Besides these holidays, office and schools shall remain closed on other occasions with the sanction of the President.

By order,
A. N. DIXIT,
Under Secretary.
